THE BIG FIGHT ASSURED.

Corbett and Fitzsimmons Will Undoubtedly Meet at Dallas.

CHAMPION CORBETT THE FAVORITE

Sporting Men of New York Have No Doubt of the Californian's Ability to Retain Championship Honors-Fitz Will Probably Train at Galveston.

NEW YORK, June 5 .- The fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons is now an assured fact, all the obstacles which have hitherto stood in the way of the battle having been removed.

Joe Vendig, who is the representative of the Florida Athletic club, when seen last night by the Associated Press representative, said: "The money, $7,000, was handed over to the temporary stakeholder, Phil J. Dwyer, today. There is absolutely no chance for a kick up this time, and I stand ready to wager any amount at odds of 10 to 1 that if the principals enter the ring, as I am sure they will, there will be a fight worth looking at, not alone from scientific points, but one that will decide the championship of the world."

Dan Stewart, the representative of the Dallas syndicate, was on Monday night elected president and treasurer of the Florida Athletic club, which owns, according to the agreement signed by Fitzsimmons and Corbett, the right to bring off a pugilistic exhibition in which these two worthies will be participants. Stewart said he had turned over the money, $7,000, to guarantee the contest and to cover the training expenses. "There is absolutely no chance of failure," he continued to fulfill the agreement, and I have been assured that Fltzsimmons or his representative will make good his guarantee of $5,000 on or before Friday next.

The sporting men who patronize the uptown resorts are a unit in the belief that the fight will be brought off in Dallas. Mr. Stewart's business like way impressed them favorably, and the partisans of both boxers are enthusiastic over the assurances that the long looked for struggle had been arranged for at last.

Corbett is said to be doing light work at Asbury Park in preparation for the mill, but Fitzsimmons says he will train close to the battle ground, possibly in Galveston. Corbett has the call among the sporting fraternity, his chances of winning being looked upon as the most likely by the betting men here.

Lawyer Friend, when seen today at the St. James hotel, said: "There is no possible doubt of the fight coming off. Everything has been arranged, so far as I know, to the satisfaction of both parties, and speaking for Fitzsimmons, I can tell you he is periectly satisfied to meet Corbett in Torss or any other place the bout can be brought off

"I have no doubt that Mr. Stewart and the syndicate which he represents will be able to bring the bout to a successful is sue. It's dollars to doughnuts that the fight takes place. The Dallas people are anxious to see the better man win, and I think the referee whom we shall appoint will prove satisfactory to the spectators and contestants alike."

Miners Will Demand on Advance.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 5.-A general miners' strike in the Kanawha and New River valley seems probable. At a meeting of the United Mine workers, held at Montgomery, resolutions were adopted demanding an advance of ten cents per ton after June 15, notifying miners at unorganized points to hold themselves in readiness to organize as early as possible, and calling another convention at Montgomery June 15. Delegates representing forty-three mines were present at the meeting.

Zimmerman and Johnson to Race.

FREEHOLD, N. J., June 5 .- It now looks as though Zimmerman and Johnson would come together in a match for the championship. Yesterday Zimmerman's manager, Joseph McDermott, informed W. J. Morgan, editor of The American Wheelman, that Zimmerman was ready to meet Johnson at Asbury Park during the League of American Wheelmen tournament in July for $5,000 a side, the money to be posted immediately. A telegram from Johnson announces that the

Why Auditor Morton Must Go.

WASHINGTON, June 5.- C. B. Morton fourth auditor of the treasury, is to be removed. Mr. Morton hails from Bangor, Me., the home of Congressman Boutelle. Private letters have been unearthed in which Morton denounced the president and Mr. Carlisle, then speaker of the CAPTAIN CLAVIJO SHOT.

A Brave Spanish Officer Meets Death for

Shooting a General. MADRID, June 5 .- General Prima de Rivera, captain general of Madrid, who was shot on Monday by Captain Clavijo, is better. He has been spitting blood since he received his wound, but this is decreas-ing, and he sleeps at intervals.

The trial of Clavijo by court martial began yesterday. In his defense Clavijo stated that he was driven to commit the deed by persecution to which he had been subjected by General Prima de Rivera. He declared that the general acted under the influence of a demi monde, who had a grudge against him. The general, he further asserted, had caused his pay to be withheld, with the result that he became so distressed financially that he was repeatedly obliged to appeal to the generosity of his friends.

Upon the conclusion of Clavijo's statement the judge advocate addressed the court, demanding that the sentence of death be imposed upon the captain. Clavijo's counsel then, on the ground that the captain was not on military duty when he attacked the captain general, and also that he had been twice submitted to medical supervision on the suspicion that his mind was deranged, eloquently appealed for hercy for the prisoner. He reminded the court of his brilliant military career, during which he gained promotion on the battlefield, and in conclusion said that the imposition of a death sentence would be a severe blow to the aged father and mother

Notwithstanding the appeal of counsel the court, after deliberation, pronounced the prisoner guilty and sentenced him to death. He was shot at 5 o'clock this morn-

FOREST FIRES SQUELCHED.

Rain Puts a Stop to the Immense Destruction of Property.

BRADFORD, Pa., June 5.-A downpour of rain quenched the forest fires in this vicinity, and everything is quiet. Knapp's Creek, N. Y., the town that was threatened with destruction, escaped with a loss of three dwellings and 150 oil well rigs and two tanks of oil. Between Duke's Center and Knapp's Creek 200 rigs were destroyed, together with a large amount of standing timber. The oil fire at West Branch, two miles from here, was extinguished by the rain, and all fires in that direction are under control. The total loss throughout the field will not fall short of RUSSELL CITY. Pa., June 5.—Rain came at 6 o'clock last evening, and in torrents. The fires in the woods are out, and there is no further danger feared in this vicinity. The damage to lumber and oil property is enormous, over 3.000 acres of valuable timber and $160.091 worth of oil property having been destroyed. It is impossible to give anything like an estimate of the total loss now. No lives were lost at Coon Run or here, and the people returned to their homes this morning-that is, those who have homes left.

A Jealous Husband's Ferocity.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 5.-While Mrs. Valentine Weissman was nursing her 6 months-old bate her husband snatched the baby from her arms and dashed it to the floor. Then he got a razor and ran after his wife, who had rushed to the garden. There he slashed here 121 times with the weapon, cutting off one of her breasts. He was frightened off by neighhors, who subsequently captured him as he was attempting to commit suicide by hanging. Mother and child will die.' The crime was caused by jealousy. .

Strikers Drive Out Workmen. WHEELING, W. Va., June 5.-Early in the morning a mob of from 300 to 500 striking miners from Dillonvale and Long Run, headed by a brass band, descended on the Gaylord Coal works, two miles above here, on the Ohio side of the river, and, after chasing all men outside away, entered the mine and dragged out a number of workmen. These were terribly beaten and maltreated. An unknown Pole will probably die, and the injuries of half a dozen others are serious.

the Lead for the Place. ATTORNEY GENERAL DICKINSON.

Attorney General Olney Now in

A Belief That the Distinguished Detroit Man Will Again Take a Place in President Cleveland's Cabinet Should Olney Take the Premiership.

Washington, June 5.—All the members of the cabinet except Postmaster General Wilson attended the cabinet meeting yesterday. Acting Secretary Uhl represented the state department. Secretary Herbert left before the meeting was over and went direct aboard the Dolphin and sailed for Annapolis, where he will attend the naval academy graduating exercises.

A cabinet officer said after the meeting that no appointment had yet been made to fill the vacancy in the cabinet. He also remarked that he did not think the president had considered the selection of a secretary of state. Senator George Gray, of Delaware, came over from Wilmington yesterday and went directly to the White House to see the president.

Senator Gray's visit to the White House was undoubtedly in response to a telegram from the president, who is is learned would not besitate to offer Mr. Gray a place in his cabinet were it not for the fact that his retirement from the senate would almost certainly result in the election of a Republican as his successor - It is thought that up to this time the president has not definitely decided upon Mr. Olney's successor. A long list of names are being discussed, but everything in that connec tion is purely speculative.

Ex Postmaster General Don M. Dickin son, it is said, would be very likely of appointment if he would accept. A possibility is Mr. Holmes Conrad, of Virginia, the present solicitor general. The fact that Mr. Conrad comes from Virginia, however, may operate against his appointment, but in case he is selected it is believed that Mr Uhl, the present acting secretary of state, would be a candidate for the vacant solicitor generalship.

Richard Olney, who is now in all probability to be advanced to the first place in President Cieveland's cabinet, has won this distinction by the able service he has thus far rendered the president on all the more important quistions that have engaged public attention since the present administration began.

Up to the time of Mr. Olney's first entering the cabinet, although recognized as one of the foremost lawyers in New England, he had taken little or no part in party politics and was not widely known among public men. The brilliancy of his legal attainments and the accuracy of his judgement soon led the president to trust Attorney General Oiney's advice on important questions. During the great strike at Chicago Mr. Olney's services were particularly notable. He developed each step that the government authorities took, and President Cleveland was so fully convinced of the wisdom of the proposed policy that he gave it thorough support and execution.

Aside from the results secured in ending the strike, the recent decision of the United States supreme court has given judicial approval to the course pursued by the government, and has shown that while Mr. Olney sought new and untried means to meet a grave emergency, he moved strictly within the constitution and the laws. In this question Mr. Olney was impelled by a desire to suppress disorder. He had shown in another case his sincere respect for the right of labor. This was in a case of the Reading railroad, which sought to compel one of its employes to either sever his connection with a rallway beneficial organization or the company's service. Although the government had no direct interests in the case Mr. Olney secured the permission of the court to present a brief in behalf of the employe, in which he held that the proposed action of the company was against justice and right. The brief was marked by a vigorous defense of the rights of labor to organize in any way it saw fit, for advancing its interests, as long as the means were peaceful and within the laws. The probable new secretary of state somes from sturdy Puritan stock. His ancestor, Thomas Olney, came from Engand and settled at Salem, Mass., in 1735. He was one of the close companions of Roger Williams and was one of the thirteen who joined Williams in founding the town of Providence. The successive generations took high rank in New England affairs, one of them being attorney general of Massachusetts. The father of Richard Olney owned and managed the cotton mills at Oxford and also engaged in banking. Mr Oluey was one of three sons. One of them is a prominent lawyer in New York, having been district attorney for the city and county of New York. Another brother is a successful woolen manufacturer. Richard Olney was graduated from Brown university in 1859, and from the Harvard law school in 1858. He married Agnes, daughter of Judge Benjamin F. Thomas, with whom he studied law. They have lived of late years at Boston, with summer homes-near Buzzard's Bay and Gray Gables, the summer residence of the

Mr. Olney has served one term in the state legislature of Massachusetts, and was an unsuccessful candidate for the attorney generalship of that state. Some years ago he was tendered a position upon the supreme bench of the state, but he declined it. He was also prominently mentioned as a candidate for the chief justiceship of the United States supreme court, to succeed Morrison R. Waite. In politics be is an old time Democrat, but was unable to support Butler for governor. He did not take a prominent part in the last presidential campaign, but rendered effective service to Mr. Cleveland in an unobtrusive manner.

DON M. DICKINSON.

It Is Believed He Will be the Next Attorney General,

DETROIT, June 5.- Upon the receipt of the Washington dispatch concerning the rumor that Don M. Dickinson, would be tendered the office of attorney general of the United States, an Assiciated Press reporter showed the disputch to Mr. Dickinson and asked as to whether he had received any intimation of that character.

"Is it secretary of state or attorney general this time?" queried Mr. Dickinson. After reading the disputch Mr. Dickin son replied: "I really cannot discuss these rumors in any way. Not because I do not wish to give the news, should I have any, but, as you are aware, my relations are somewhat peculiar." It is regarded here as by no means improbable that Mr. Dickinson would accept the legal portfolio if tendered, and his well known intunate relations with the president renders it not unlikely that he has already been consulted with reference to the filling of the vacancy in the cabinet. Detroiters believe that he is without doubt to be the next attorney general. They argue that if Mr. Dickinson intended to decline a cabinet position, if offered, he would undoubtedly announce the fact at Denouncing Senator Brice.

COLUMBUS. June 5. - The Democratic state executive committee issues an address to the Democrats of Ohio calling attention to the delay of the state central committee in calling a state convention, and urging necessity for immediate action. The address, which is signed by Chairman Allen W. Thurman, says: "The Republicans are already in the field. Why should not the Democracy be there also? The undersigned know of no reason, other than that Senator Calvin S. Brice, who apparently controls the chairman of the state central committee, will not permit it Senator Brice realizes that he is not in harmony with the great majority of the Democratic party of Ohio upon the money question, and wants time in which he can, by political manipulation and machinery, control, if possible, the declaration the Democracy of the state will make upon this issue.'

New York, June 5 -The new American line steamship St. Louis sailed at 11 o'clock today on her maiden passage across the Atlantic. Her carrying capacity will be taxed to the utmost, as she takes over 350 cabin passengers, the full limit of her accommodations A very convenient feature of the St. Louis is the fact that she can sent every cabin passenger in the spacious dining saloon at one time, so that no one will be compelled to wait for a second or third table, which is usually the case on most of the other big liners when crowded.

REFORM IN NEW JERSEY.

Measures Proposed by the Senata Investigating Committee.

WILL PROBABLY ALL DE PASSED.

The Members of the House Refuse to Giva Assurance That They Will Pass the Proposed Laws, but It Is Believed They Will Take Favorable Action.

TRENTON, June 5 -The New Jersey legislature, after a recess of several weeks, reconvened yesterday. The legislature is meeting to receive and act upon the report of the senare committee. In accordance with the resolution adopted when the recess was taken. In the report figures and facts are given to show that under very meager authority large sums of money have been expended annually without appropriation. The report declares that the state was cheated and betrayed on every hand, and asserts that deals were made with race track men to violate the laws of

The Republican senators were in conference for several hours discussing the recommendations of the investigating committee. It was finally decided to pass bills carrying out all the recommenda-tions of the committee with the exception of those favoring the consolidation of the state board of assessors and the state board of taxation, abolishing the bureau of labor statistics, and placing the riparian commissioners on the non-salary

The investigating committee held a long conference with the Republican members of the house with reference to passing the bills which the Republican senators had agreed upon. The house members would not say what they would finally do, but they consented to act upon the bills, and the indications are that they will pass them as they come from the senate. The house then convened and decided to adjourn until tomorrow morning. The senate met last evening, when Senator Voorbees, chairman of the investigating committee, introduced a number of bills on behalf of the committee. They were as follows: Making the governor, compuroller and treasurer a commission to award bids for printing the laws in pamphlet . .m, they to decide what shall be printed; appropriating a specific amount for each department of the state govern-ment for the fiscal year beginning Nov. 1, 1895; providing that all current printing and stavionery for the legislature shall be done by contract; reducing the number of officers of the senate and house and fixing their compensation. All these bills, with the exception of the appropriation bill, were passed to second reading. The latter was referred to the committee on appropriations. Among the other bills introduced were those repealing the statute giving the governor thirty days to consider bills after adjournment, and limiting him to the constitutional five days; giving the mayor of New Brunswick a vote in common council, which is deadlocked.

Every county in the state is represented by its full quota of delegates. The movement in the direction ot anational money convention seems to g force every hour.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. A Committee of Senators to Investigate

Kentucky Republicans Hopeful.

LOUISVILLE, June 5.—The Republican state convention opened here today. Last November the vote by congressional districts showed a decisive Republican majority in the state, and if there had been a Republican ticket in the field then it would have been elected. The Republicans feel that the same conditions exist this year, and say they are now convinced as the majority party for the first time since the civil war. Judge George Denny, of Lexington, who is contesting with Colonl Owens the former seat of Breckinridge in congress, is temporary chairman, and Congressman Walter Evans will probably be permanent chairman. No opposition has developed to Colonel W. O. Bradley for governor.

The Spinners' union held a meeting Monday night, and the members are prepared to go out the moment they are instructed to do so.

MORE SOLDIERS AT POCAHONTAS Coal Operators Say an Organized Attack

on Workmen Is Imminent. POCAHONTAS, Va., June 5 .- More soldiers arrived in Pocahontas yesterday. The coal operators claim that since the partial withdrawal of the militia the miners have grown bolder, and an organized attack was feared by the operators on the men in the mines. The coal companies contemplated evicting all men who were not working from their houses yesterday, but this was deferred for fear of trouble, and a further effort will be made to induce the men to go to work.

The output of the Virginia mines has been smaller than the average for the past ten days. The West Virginia men who are mining have a reduced force at work, and the shipments from this point are not large. The West Virginia operators have still a large guard on duty to see that the men are not molested. No move is in sight looking to a termination of the strike, and the sending in of new soldiers has aroused the miners.

Mrs. Pope Gets Life Imprisonment.

DETROIT, June 5.-Mrs. Nellie W. Pope is today an inmate of the state prison at Jackson, where she will spend the remainder of her life in punishment for the murder of her husband. When Mrs. Pope received her sentence she wept violently and protested her innocence. Last evening she left for Jackson in custody of a deputy sheriff. Mrs. Pope is 36 years of age. On the morning of Feb. 3 last her husband, a dentist, was found seated in a chair in his home, his skull crushed with a hatchet. William Brusseau, who lived with the family, confessed that he killed the doctor at the wife's solicitation, so that she could get his insurance money.

Improvements at Glenmere Lake.

The mill which has stood for a number of years at what was formerly Thompson's Pond, now known as Gienmere Lake, has been remodeled into a substantial brick hotel. Two stories have been added to the structure with wide piezzas extending across the front, and the hotel contains twenty large, com'ortable sleeping rooms. The place has become so popular with city boarders that Mr. H. W. Cable, the proprietor, found it impossible to accommodate the many applicants for rooms during the summer season and so purchased and remodeled the mill property which he expects to fill with city people, as well as the large boarding house there, which he has conducted so successfully for several seasons.

THIS IS A MIRACLE.

THE WONDERFUL CURE OF A WOMAN IN MAINE.

Stricken With a Disease That Rendered Her Absolutely Helpless, She is Miraculously Cured-Her Statement in

Detail. From the Binghamton, N. Y., Republican

For some time past the little village of Maine, in the county of Broome, State of New York, has had little else to talk of save the remarkable case of Mrs. Nora Ellen Brown, the wife of a highly respected and prosperous blacksmith, and how she had been ra sed from bed, where she lay stricken with a supposed incurable disease. So great became the tame of this remarkable cure that the Binghamton Republican detailed a reporter to investigate the facts of the case, to whom Mrs. Brown, a comely young woman, made the following statement:

"I was born in Canada in 1865 and until a year or so ago had always enjoyed good health. I was married seven years ago, have had two children and never had any severe illness before the attack from which I have now happily recovered. About two years ago with my husband and family I removed from Nichols to Maine. Shortly after our arrival here I was taken ili. My limbs commenced aching day and night and finally got so bad that I could not Monday of June, 1895. walk at all. I had to invoke the aid of sticks and move around with the assistance of others. I called in a physician, who treated me, but without any appreciable effect. In fact I got steadily worse. Then I took seven bottles of a so-called cure for rheumatism, but my condition continued to grow worse rather than better. I was confined to my bed, and my husband had to help me in and out. I was perfectly helpless and could not at end either to my chil dren or my household duties. J eculd not sleep nights and suffered agonizing pains in my limbs. It was only by a great effort that I could sit up in bed. About the latter part of last fall I read that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People had effected a wonderful cure in Toronto. My condition was so bad that I-almost despaired of finding anything that would even afford me relief let alone cure me, but I determined to give Dr. Williams' pills a trial. After I had taken one box I noticed a decided change for the better in my condition and was encouraged to contique the medicine. As I took more of the pills the pains became less frequent and I gradually regained the use of my limbs. By this time I had become convinced that nothing would help me but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I continued taking them regularly. After I had used four boxes I was able to walk about and attend to my work without much difficulty, but I did not cease taking the pills. By the early part of the Spring I was completely cured and I am now able to walk about as well as ever and once more attend to my household duties, much to the amazement of my friends and neighbors who never expected to see me walk again. They all including my husband think it a wonderful cure. When I first moved here my neighbors thought I was naturally lame and are now astounded at the remarkable change that has been effected in my condition by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, Since I commenced taking the pills I have had no other kind of medicine. Once in a while I get a little rheumatic twinge in my limbs and then I take some of the pills. I have invariably found that they give me immediate relief. I always keep them in the house and under no circumstances would I be without them." The reporter talked with a number of the citizens of Maine, all of whom had heard of the wonderful cure effected in Mrs. Brown's case by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and all very readily substantiated the absolute accuracy of her statement of the matter.

Dr. Williams' Pink Ptlls are now given to the public as an unfailing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or shattered nerves. two fruitful causes of most-every ill that flash is heir to. These pills are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, all forms of weakness, chronic constipation, bearing down pains, etc., and in the case of men will give speedy relief and effect a permanent cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature. The finest sort of crop making weather has prevailed throughout the Western States for several days, thus putting altogether a new face on the season's prospects for all the cereals, as is reflected in weakening prices for wheat and corn. It is a significant fact that the strongest opposition to the appoint ment of women as members of Brooklyn's Board of Education comes from the women who are teachers in the city's schools. Various reasons are given by the objecting teachers, but the real reason is undoubtedly a realization of the fact that women when in authority over women are more arbitrary and exacting than men and have proved themselves capable of pettinesses of which men would never dream.

Carefully compiled statistics show that within six weeks the wages of over 200,000 employes in manufacturing establishments of various kinds in the United States have been raised, in most cases by the voluntary act of the employer. Such a general raising of wages means that business conditions are satisfactory and that the outlook for the future is bright. Business prosperity under the Pemocratic tariff will set at naught the plans of the extreme protectionists who proposed at the next session of Congress to tinker the tariff in the line of higher duties and will eliminate the calamity howl from next year's presidential campaign.

The rise of about thirty-four cents in the cost of the bushel of wheat witnessed in the past ninety days has, strange to say, but slightly sympathetically affected the cost of the barrel of flour. An effect of this has been a great shinkege in flour production, many of the mills of the West having closed down, awaiting either higher prices for their ou put or lower prices for wheat. A further effect of these somewhat anomalous telations in the cost of the raw and the manufactured article, is to advance the cost of cattle feed, so indispensable to Orange county consumption, and so the farmers, like the millers, are waiting for more rational conditions before laying in their stocks of winter feed.

It is asserted in New York that the Parkhurstites, Good Government clubs and reformers generally have already started a movement to pr vent the re-election of Senator Lexow, who not only proved himself an enemy of Parkhurt's plans for reform, but was also guilty of the unpardonable sin of laughing at Parkhurst and his schemes for making the world better by act of the Legislature. It is an open secret that the Republicans of Orange and Rockland counties have not much use for Lexow. They do not take kindly to the "big head" he developed as soon as the success of his police investigation was assured, and make no secret of their dissatisfaction at the contemptuous manner in which he treated those of his constituents whose misfortune it was to have to call upon him on legislative business. If the Parkhurst crowd try to defeat Lexow's renomination they will find many Republicans willing to help. If, however, Lexow should be renominated and the reformers should Hood's Pills the after-dinner pill and try to bring about his defeat, it is not probable they could influence a score of Republican votes in the whole district. The cry of "reform" never yet was known to cause a Republican to waver in his loyalty to hie party.

BAD WRECK ON THE ERIE.

Thirty-one Cars Filed in a Heap at Otterkili-A Broken Journal Causes West Round Cars to Leave the Track and an East Bound Coal Train Dashes Into Them-Two Men Hurt-Passenger Trains Run Over the O. and W.

One of the worst wrecks the Erie has had in recent years occurred about 2:30 o'clock, this morning, at Otterkill, about midway between Goshen and Chester.

Fireman Thomas Murray and Brakeman F. E. White, of an east bound coal train, received cuts and bruises about the head and body, but were not seriously injured.

Twenty loaded coal cars on an east bound train were derailed, five of them being completely demolished. Eleven empty dongolas on a west bound train were also totally wreck-

The cause of the wreck was a broken journal under a car on the west bound train, which caused that car and several others to leave the track, and pile up on each other across the east bound track.

Engine No. 245, Engineer Mat Curtis, Conductor Samuel Curry, with a heavy train of loaded coal cars, east bound, at a rapid rate of speed plunged into the wreck before warning could be given.

The result was the derailing of thirty-one cars, sixteen of which are total wrecks. Both tracks were torn up and twisted for a distance of 300

Fireman Murray received his injuries in an attempt to jump down the embankment, and brakeman White was thrown from a car down

Neither engine was derailed but the tank on No. 245 was broken open on the side. The Jersey City, Greycourt and Port Jervis wreckers were called out and a gang of one hundred men were at work within an hour clearing the tracks. The empty cars on the west bound track were dumped down the embankment, and at 9 o'clock that track was cleared.

The first train down was the Orange County Express, followed by the Mountain Express and Middletown Way train. Trains 10 and 12 were run from this city over the O. and W. tracks to New Durham, N. J., where they were transferred to the Northern Railroad of New Jersey, and run from there to the Erie's station in Jersey City. The Erie milk trains passed the wreck at 10 o'clock, and No. 21 was delayed only fifteen minutes in reaching this city.

The east bound track can hardly be cleared before to-night, it being necessary to replace broken trucks under many of the cars. The fact that they are loaded with coal makes the work much harder. A trestle over a wagon road west of the Otterkill culvert was badly damaged on the east bound side and will have to be rebuilt before a train can pass.

Superintendent McGuire, Roadmaster Highid and Trainmaster G.W. Dowe were early arrivals at the scene of the wreck, and took charge of clearing away the debris and superintended the movement of trains.

The west bound train was in charge of Engineer John Welch and Conductor S. Salisbury. Michael Burke, of this city, piloted

No. 12 over the O. and W. tracks.

Lady Thrown From a Wagon and Injured.

While Messenger Carroll of the Western Union office was riding down Mill street, yesterday afternoon, a horse driven by William Lee. a farmer of Mount H pe, took fright at the boy's bicycle and began to rear and plunge. It soon got beyoud the driver's control and, jumping on the sidewalk, tipped the wagon so Mrs. Lee, who was with him, was thrown out and slightly cut about the head and sustained bruises on the arm.

She was taken to the residence of Mrs. Chas. Canfield and Dr. Pillsbury was summoned.

The frightened horse was quieted before any further damage was done.

HIS $10 WIFE.

A Very Matter of Fact Bargain With a Woman Attached.

The disappearance of George Fordham after selling his wife for $10 to Oscar Luce continues to be the talk of Sag Harbor, N. Y. Miss Anna Fordham had lived all her life in and about Sag Harbor until she astonished the community by marrying Charley Faulkner, "the soap peddler," but Charley tired of his bride and fled.

Then George Fordham appeared. He had cut loose from his old associations at Patchogue and came, like a gay Lochinvar, into the east. Some inherent qualities appeared to attract the grass widow and George Fordham, the fish

"Let's get spliced?" said George.
"Let's," answered Ann. The fact that Ann had a husband living seemed to be no bar to the nuprial arrangement. Matters went along in the dull routine which marks life in that section of Long Island until it was announced that Oscar Luce had formed a partnership with Fordham to do their trapping together. Oscar moved into the Fordhams' hut, and he and the portly bride became quite friendly.

A few weeks ago it was discovered that Fordham had disappeared and that his wife was living with Oscar at the Luces' homestead. When the wife was asked where George was, she answered nenchalantly:

"Oh, he's gone where he won't be seen for some time, I reckon."

Then a man told that one night he heard a voice like George's say, "Don't shoot; for God's sake, don't shoot!"

That settled it. People knew that Fordham was murdered. When Luce was questioned, he said that George had gone away to dodge the constable. Oscar had given George $10, who in turn had presented him with his fixtures and his wife. The neighbors calculated that the "fixings" were worth $7.50, so that Luce only gave $2.50 for the wife.

Constable Morris of Sag Harbor investigated the matter and thinks it is one of the funniest events in his experience. Al Perry received a letter recently from George, saying he is in Connecticut and doing well. Meanwhile Luce comes to town with clams, leaves his $10 wife and fixtures at home, and everybody is satisfied.—New York Recorder.

SIMPLE JUDGE HARLAN.

He Drinks Milk and Eats Pie Like a Poor Clerk.

Most of the members of the supreme court are great epicures, and while the court is in session they lunch at the cap itol in a room set apart for that purpose. Nearly all the justices are particular as to what they eat and how it is cooked. Harlan, however, is the exception, and one of the attendants once remarked, "I believe he would be satisfied with plain bread and butter."

A few days ago, when the court was not in session, he was seen at noontime in one of the cheap lunchrooms for which Washington is famous. In one hand the justice held a stone mug full of milk, and on the arm of the chair by his side reposed a piece of apple pie. That was his lunch for that day.

He was surrounded by treasury of of high and low degree, business men and others, but he went along munching his pie and drinking his milk just as unconcerned as if it was the proper thing for a $10,000 a year justice of the supreme court to make his noonday meal off a pie and milk like a $600 a year messenger.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Bottled Diamonds.

While fishermen were hauling a net for shad in the upper Delaware, near Lambertville, last Saturday, they took a sealed bottle with a long, narrow silk ribbon about the neck. In the bottle was this note:

"This bottle was started from Dingman's Ferry, Pa. Will the finder communicate with one of the undersigned, stating when and where found? Ann H, Gertrude G. and Emily L., April 15, 1895.''

The fishermen were about to cast the bottle aside when one of them discovered something bright and sparkling in the bottle. It proved to be a diamond. which has since been found to be worth $100. It is supposed in placing the note in the bottle one of the young women dropped the precious stone from a ring she wore. -Chicago Tribune.

Germany's Standard at Kiel. Germany's imperial standard is going to make matters nupleasant for the French visitors at Kiel. IT WAS THE IRONY OF FATE.

The Clerk's Loud Voice Made Trouble In the Lambkin Family.

"I don't see why we can't go to the opera like other people," pouted Mrs. Lambkin, as she and her spouse were walking home together. "We could. I'm sure, if you didn't look upon Wagner as a mortal en mig."

"My only objection to him is the fact that he sends you to sleep and then won't let you stay there," replied Mr. Lambkin. Then, basely anxious to change the subject, he remarked, "I do believe that is Mrs. Fitzjones in another new gown. "

"No doubt. Her husband in so generous to her. Why, she tells me that they were at the opera last evening and expect to go again tomorrow." "Indeed. Ah, by the way, didn't you tell me that you thought Dick Norocks and Miss Effic had quarreled?" "Very likely. I notice that Dick is particularly touchy whenever grand opera is in town."

"Ah, indeed. By the way, how should you like to call at your mother's this evening?'

"Very much, if anybody was likely to be at home. But of course they will all go to the opera." "Um—ali! I've just remembered that this is church evening. Suppose we go. We haven't been to evening church since we were first married. " "Impossible, George. I should be ashamed to have any one know that I was well enough to be out after night and not at the opera. People would be sure to say that you are stingy, and I would rather die than cause such remarks.''

"Fact is, Endora, I'm as anxions as you are to go to the opera, but money is too tight. I had to make a payment today and I doubt if I have a dollar in my pocket. Never mind, we can have a nice long evening at home alone, can't we? "Humph! We are sure to be alone, for every living soul we know will be at the opera."

"All the better, my dear. Just step in here with me a moment, will you? I have no cigars, and I don't want to have to go out for anything tonight. You see, I don't keep many cigars on hand now that money is so scarce."

They went into the store, and Mr. Lambkin selected his cigars, while his wife stood by. He felt anxiously in his pockets for small change, and finding none took a bill out of his notebook, and glancing warily at Mrs. Lambkin handed it, all crumpled up, to the clerk After all that it did seem the irony of fare which made that individual call ont in stentorian tones to the cashier, "Twenty-five from 20, please!"

And Mrs. Lambkin was still talking about it when they reached home.-Chicago Times-Herald.

My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Reeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Cure." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your prebaration, and to-day I consider myself completely cured, I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it

Dear Sirs—I have been a tone co fiend for thirty-three year- and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system ben, affected considerable. I have often tried to give up the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boves of your "Baco-Curo" I used tobacco at the same time while taking "Baco-Curo," and after a week I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing. I am enjoying better health, and consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most harmless and reliable remedy for to break the tobacco habit.

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr.
James Reid. of the town of Burnside. Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Cura."
He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to love his taste for tobacco, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured. Yours truly, J. C. Taylor, Druggist.

STORIES OF THE DAY.

Railroad Telegraphers Meet and Spin Yards of Interest.

The national convention of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers recently assembled at St. Louis. Of course they swapped yarns and experiences, of which samples are given below:

R. W. McGarvie tells a story of an experience he passed through on the Canada Southern a great many years ago, when he prevented a wreck by throwing his lantern at a rapidly passing engine in which both the engineer and fireman were asleep.

"I was located at Newport, Mich., then," said he. "The train was an extra, and running on special orders, which gave it the right of track against the regular passenger train.

"Mike Coyle was the train dispatcher, and he sent me a hold order, which meant that the extra would meet the regular passenger train at Newport instead of at the station beyond. It was in the winter, and I remember I had to keep changing the bottoms of the switch lamps to keep the lard oil in them from freezing. The passenger had received its orders at the station above me and would stop at Newport, and my only anxiety concerned the extra. Just about the time the passenger was due I heard the extra coming from the opposite direction. I walked out on to the platform, and as it came nearer and nearer I frantically waved my red light. But there was no decrease in the train's speed. I was sure there must be something wrong, and as the engine flew past me I threw my lantern through the cab window, striking and awakening the fireman. Looking out the window, he saw the red lights displayed at the station. In a moment the train was slowed down, and a brakeman was sent ahead to flag the coming passenger, which was then within view, just in time to prevent an aw-

The above story seemed rather improbable, but Mr. McGarvie vouched for

A Close Shave.

An old dispatcher told of a narrow escape he had from getting two trains together.

"I was very sleepy that night," said "We had two wild trains on the road. A wild train is one that has no time card rights only the rights conferred upon it by special orders issued by the dispatcher. I gave one of these trains orders not to pass X station without orders. It could make there for the regular freight, and I wanted to give it a 'meet order' with the other wild. When it arrived at X station, I found that the regular freight was quite late, and I gave the wild freight an order to run to C station regardless of No. 10, the regular, but forgot all about the wild train running west in the opposite direction. A few moments after I had corrected the order and the train had gone I remembered the west bound extra. You can imagine the condition into which I was thrown. There were two freight trains running in opposite directions, and neither knew the other was on the road. I paced the floor a few moments and then began calling C station. There was no night operator there, but I had a premonition that I might get I called in vain.

"A few minutes later, however, the operator at C station began calling me. I almost fainted with joy.

"'No. 10 is here, the instrument ticked. 'Her engine is broken down, and she will have to set out half the train and go in on one side.'

"'Is wild west there?' I asked "'Is taking water and wants orders to run ahead of No. 10, he replied. "'Put out your red light,' I rejoined. "'O. K. red light out,' he replied a minute later. "I was so weak from excitement I could hardly make a dot on the key, but I managed to give the wild west an order to meet wild east at C station, and then run ahead of No. 10. A moment later I had the signature of the conductor and engineer of the extra and knew I was safe.

"A few days later I saw the conductor of that train, and he asked me in a quizzical way how it came that the wild east reached C station so soon after he got orders to meet it there. asked him if the operator at C station did not have out his red lights. He could not remember, and then I knew I was safe and that the superintend at would never discover my mistake. He didn't."

MISSED HIS VOCATION.

The Remarkable Qualities that Would Mayo Mado a Wife Murderer a Great

Martin V. Strait, convicted last week in Eimira of wife murder, has young men and boys and even wommade two attempts at suicide since en bathing in the Delaware River in his conviction. After killing his an entirely nude state. On Saturday wife he shot himse f four times but failed to inflict a mortal wound. His wonderful fallure to succeed in his attempts at self-destruction leads the Eimira Gazette to remark:

One who can put four bullets into himself where they can do no harm and f b around his jugular with a plece of tin without hurting himself should be able, with proper tools, to out up other people with neatness, accuracy and dispatch. Strait missad his true vocation when he went auto the milling and flour and feed Existences He could lodge fatal bultests unerringly into other people. He sould place them harmlessly in himseit. He can shave his jugular vein with the handle of his drinking cup.

A man with such knowledge of anatomy, accuracy of eye and definess state should have wielded the surgeon's tools and not devoted himself to any clumsier occupation.

A New Superintendent for Thrall Hos.

Mrs. M. Livingston, to-day, enterad upon the duties of Superintensters of Thrall Hospital and will have full charge of that institution.

She is a resident of New York city and a graduate of the Bellevue Hos-, pit il Nursea' Training School.

She was for two and one half years Superintendent of the Ithaca hospital and comes most highly endorsed, not only by physicians there but by New York physicians as well, among them being Dr. Austin Flint, Jr.

The W. C. T. U , Excursion.

The W. C. T. U, excursion by the G. and W., and Mary Powell to New York, this morning was not very liberally patronized. There were only two coaches in the special train and there was an abundance of room in both.

The threatening weather of the early morning doubtless kept many people at home.

Drs. Jones & Potter's special agetem for curing rupture consists of placing in the canal through which the rupture passes their healing medicine with the hypodermic needle, each week, until it is entirely healed. It does not cause pain, danger or de-

Mis Clothes Confiscated and He Has to Hide in the Bushes Till Nightfall.

The residents of Matamoras have been much annoyed recently by the wife of a prominent resident warned a party of young men not to bathe in the river opposite her house, but they paid no attention to her request. She captured the trousers and shoes of one of the party and sent for a constable. The man eluded arrest by swimming to the Port Jervis side of the river, where he was compelled to hide as best as he could all the afternoon. He had nothing on but a gauze undershirt and was forced to endure the terrible heat in this condition until nightfall when, believing he had been sufficiently punished, his clothing was restored to him.

THE HUDSON RIVER BRIDGE.

Plans for a Suspension Bridge to Cost $25,000.000 Adopted,

Plans for the proposed railroad bridge across the North River were adopted, yesterday, by the New York and New Jersey Bridge Company, and have been forwarded to the Secretary of War for approval.

The company has abandoned the idea of a cantllever structure, and will erect instead a suspension bridge completely spanning the river and having a length of 3,100 feet from shore to shore. The bridge will be 150 feet above the surface of the river in the middle, and the towers supporting the twelve great cables will be more than twice as high as those of the Brooflyn Bridge. The Union Bridge Company stands ready to enter into a contract to build this giant bridge for $25,000,000. This is a not unreasonable figure; certainly not a prohibitive one.

THE ORGAN RECITAL.

A Small Audience, but a Fine Concert. The organ recital at the Second Presbyterian Church, last evening, drew only a small audience, which is to be regretted, as the entertainment was a fire one.

Mr. Stevens played several selections upon the organ in his own inimitable style; Mrs. Rohn gave an organ solo, and she and her sister, Miss Benjamin, an organ and guitar duet; Mr. Stevens and Samuel Sche'lenberg an organ and violin duet; and Miss Bertha Morgans sang two numbers most, acceptably and was

SCROFULA 12 YEARS

Always Sore. Face Burned Like Fire. Ashamed to be Seen. Four Doctors but Little Bénefit. Cured by, CUTICURA.

For about ten or twelve years I have been troubled with scrofula. My head was always sore, my face was dry and scaly, and burned like fire most of the time. My body had big red spots on it, and I did not know what to do. I went to four different doctors and they helped me at first. In the fall I got worse again; then I tried other remedies, but they did me no good. I was ashamed to go into public. I was a sight to look at Every one would say, "What is the matter, why don't you take something?" Even at my daily labor I had to wear a sort of cap to keep the dirt from getting into the sores. After I would wash, I would be covered with big red pimples all over my neck and face. Some two or three people advised me to try the Cuttour Remedies. I did try them, and am glad I have done so. Glad to say I am a well man, and in the best of health since. I cannot praise the Cuttour Remedies to highly. I enclose my portrait.
